

Are we paying TOO MUCH for health insurance?

More and more New Yorkers are forced to go without needed medical care because they can't afford skyrocketing health insurance premiums and co-pays — or can't afford insurance at all.

And yet legislation that would limit insurance industry rate hikes and administrative waste has been stalled in the New York State legislature. So has a bill that would provide public health insurance for all New Yorkers.

FIND OUT WHY — AND MEET TWO PEOPLE WHO ARE DOING SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

DON BARBER is challenging State Sen. Seward (Insurance Committee chair)

MARK DUNLEA is a leading healthcare reformer in New York State

State Senator James Seward has also been invited.

Wednesday, May 28 at 7:00 pm
Oneonta Town Hall, State Highway 23 (West Oneonta)

Sponsored by the Healthcare Work Group of the Coalition for Democracy of Central NY.
For more info: www.democracycoalition.org, healthcaremessenger@gmail.com.

